

wedding digital photographer of the year

winner

Claire Dalgarno (Above)
Bride & groom on the pier

"I would have to say I have the best job in the world. Photographing a bride and groom gives me such an adrenaline rush. Being creative with my clients and producing beautiful images they will treasure forever is my passion. I am honoured and excited to receive the award."

"This photograph really stood out as capturing a special moment in a really unique way, complete with movement, energy and the passion of the newly married couple. It may be a two-dimensional image, but this photograph feels 'alive'. A seemingly effortless piece, it attracts in such a subconscious way that you can almost feel the breeze and smell the sea on the air. You are transported into the image and the moment without even knowing it. A stunning effort."

"Outstanding composition; no part of the image is redundant, as they all add to make this image breathtaking. Romantic without being predictable or obvious, this is an outstanding image."
